

END MY WAIT

for comprehensive services

END THE WAIT for Zachary

- I live with my parents but I want to live with my sister in Fort Collins.
- I've been waiting for comprehensive disability services for 5 years.
- With services, I think my life could be more fully mine. I would have more options.
- A Personal Goal: to have a housing opportunity that would be long term with people who really like me.

"I'm a little adventurous and like to be included in new activities. My sister lives in Fort Collins and is my back-up guardian. She will help me if my parents can't, but she and her husband work and have two girls. They are my nieces and I love them all so much. They can't take care of me full time."

The Time Has Come to END THE WAIT!!!
