

Jodi Walters

Jodi Walters started at PPCH in May of 2015, and was appointed as the Executive Director January 1, 2017. Jodi has been working with children and adults with developmental disabilities since 1993. She began her career in 1993 with teaching blind and disabled school children in Taiwan. She worked with Imagine! for nearly 20 years before joining PPCH. Her last 7 years with Imagine! she was the Director of that Board's residential program and child placement agency. Jodi has served on several commissions and boards including the executive board of Fostering Colorado, the President of the Board of the former local Part C entity for Boulder and Broomfield counties, and the Human Services Advisory Council for the City and County of Broomfield. Jodi met and fell in love with her husband early in her career working at a group home for medically fragile individuals. In her free time Jodi enjoys hiking with her family and spending time at the pool watching her kids compete.
