Biography

Kristin Hyser leads the Broomfield Housing Alliance (BHA) as its inaugural Executive Director. Functioning as the housing authority serving the City and County of Broomfield, CO, BHA creates and preserves housing options to meet the diverse needs of the Broomfield community.

Prior to joining BHA in 2022, Kristin served as the Deputy Director of Housing and Human Services for the City of Boulder. In this role, she provided strategic leadership to achieve the city's housing and human services goals. Kristin's tenure with the City of Boulder included serving as the Community Investment Manager overseeing the investment of over $100 million in local and federal resources to secure over 1000 units of permanently affordable housing.

Kristin has extensive public sector experience in various disciplines advancing the social determinants of health - public health, community development, economic development, affordable housing, and human services. Kristin has a B.A. in Sociology and Anthropology from Earlham College in Richmond, Indiana and a Masters in Regional Planning from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York.
