

END MY WAIT

for comprehensive services

END THE WAIT for Elizabeth

- I live with my mom and dad outside of Fraser in Grand County.
- I've been waiting for comprehensive disability services since 2011.
- Things are ok at home, but there isn't much opportunity for independence, meeting peers, learning new skills.
- A Personal Goal: Make friends, try to learn new skills, be more independent be a part of a community, belong.

“With help, people with special needs can be a valuable asset in their community. Special needs people want the same kind of chances to live life as typical people. They need support, and a place that is safe.”

-Elizabeth
